

Say Mrs. Caruso-Ingram May Take Third Hubby

Every now and then local gossips feel obliged to marry off Mrs. Dorothy Benjamin Caruso-Ingram, and this time they've reported her engaged to Charles H. Wacker, Jr., well known clubman and distinguished war aviator.

Whether there's anything more to this report than preceding rumors affecting the heart of Caruso's widow is hard to tell. Wacker is at present in Paris, and was engaged a year ago to Miss Audrey Emery of Washington. She is now reported engaged to Grand Duke Dimitri of Russia.

Wacker, it was reported, nearly drowned himself in his bathtub in Biarritz following his jilting by Miss Emery.

Following Caruso's death the former Dorothy Benjamin married Capt. Ingram, wealthy Scotchman, but this romance was short-lived.

THACHER ALBANY MAYOR

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 3.—John Boyd Thacher 2d, Democrat, was elected mayor of Albany today by a plurality of about 20,000 over D. Arthur Sauter, Republican.

Happy Election Crowds Kept Home by Radio

There was scarcely more than a semblance of oldtime election nights on Broadway last night.

The increasing popularity of parlor radios as a means of getting the returns, combined with the dearth and costliness of stimulating liquid refreshments, reduced the outward jubilation over the great Democratic victory to the mildest of demonstrations.

Broadway was hardly different from any ordinary holiday night. Large crowds of theatergoers jammed the streets, and hotels did a fairly good business, but the cowbells, ticklers and other appurtenances of sidewalk crowds on past election nights were rare.

But the radios that kept throngs home and cut in on receipts of hotel and restaurant men saved the taxpayers lots of money. Instead of rushing hither and thither, running up heavy expense bills, the candidates talked over the radio and kept down the overhead, according to reports to the Department of Commerce at Washington.

Say Bridegroom Deserted Guard

Francis Irving Kendall, 20-year-old bridegroom, whose mother caused his arrest last August in an attempt to prevent his marriage, faces a new charge today. This time it is desertion from the 114th Infantry, N. J. N. G., at Elizabeth.

He was arrested at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Maud McElroy, 6 Rutgers Place, Nutley. He is held at the Elizabeth armory for a hearing. Kendall's friends say he was under the impression he had received an honorable discharge from the militia.

OYSTERS R IN SEASON

The oyster is a joyful exception to the rule that palate ticklers are usually digestion troublers.
